

Camp Flutterbye

A Holiday Grief Camp for Children & Teens, K-12

- The holiday season is often a sensitive and confusing time for children and teens who are grieving the death of a loved one.
- Our grief camp offers a day of fun-filled, therapeutic activities designed by our bereavement professionals.
- Campers will learn to understand that feelings of grief and sadness are healthy and normal, even during the holidays.
- They will discover ways to cope that allow them to enjoy their families and activities during the holiday season.
